

THINGS TO KNOW

- Where: The Home of Jody and Kim Martin
743 Bizerte Ave, Dallas, TX 75224
- When: Saturday, November 4
5:00pm – 7:00pm
- Rules: We will not be adhering to International Chili Society rules for this cook-off, which means that there are no limits to ingredients. (ICS rules state that entries cannot contain beans or tomatoes.) So, if you call it “chili” we’ll consider it to be chili.
- Bring: Please arrive by 4:45 with your entry already prepared and in a crock-pot. (We will not have a way to keep entries warm other than by plugging in crock-pots.) Bring one full crock pot that will be used to provide samples to attendees and to the judges. You are also invited to bring as much extra chili to be sold in pints as you are willing to donate. (The extra chili to be sold does not have to be hot, but please bring it either in a crock-pot or in an ice chest, so we can maintain safe temperatures. We will portion it for you into pint containers that have already been purchased.)
- Prizes: Prizes will be awarded for first, second, and third place based on a panel of judges. There will also be a “crowd favorite” award for the entry that gets the most votes from attendees.
